

The Newport Daily News.

$5.00 PER ANNUM.

VOL. XVII.

The Daily News.

For Prospects, Advertising and Subscription Terms, see last Column of this page.

Poetical.

FREEDOM, OUR QUEEN.

Land where the banners wave last in the sun
Blazoned with iron-clad stars, many in one,
Fighting over prairie and mountain and sea;
Hark! 'tis the voice of thy children to thee!

Here at thine alter our vows we renew
Still in thy cause to be loyal and true—
True to thy flag on the field and the wave,
Living to honor it, dying to save!

Mother of heroes! if perch'dly thy blight
Fall on a star in thy garland of light,
Sound but one bugle blast! Lo! at the sign
Armies all pausing wheel into line!

Hope of the world! thou last broken its chains,
Wear thy bright arms while a tyrant remains,
Stand for the right till the nation shall own
Freedom their sovereign with Law for her throne?

Freedom! sweet Freedom! our voices resound,
O'er by God's blessing, unscathed uncrowned!
Freedom, sweet Freedom, our pulses repeat,
Warm with her life-blood, as long as they beat!

Fold the broad banner-striped over her breast,
Crown her with star-jewels Queen of the West!
Earth for her heritage, God for her friend!
She shall reign over us, world without end!

Holmes.

From our Edition of Yesterday.]
Terrible Attack and Repulse of the Rebels between Centreville and Fairfax.

Gen. STEVENS KILLED AND HIS SON WOUNDED.

The Tribune's correspondent states that in consequence of the threatening demonstrations of the rebels Generals Hill and Longstreet it was deemed necessary on Monday morning to evacuate Centreville which was done. Our troops retreating toward Fairfax Court House. Gen. Reno's Division leading and McDowell's following.

Before reaching Fairfax they were attacked by a detachment of Gen. Hill's Division under Stuart, who were concealed in the woods near the village and who poured in a volley upon the Brigade of Gen. Reno and Stevens which immediately formed into line of battle and Gen. Stevens' troops charged through the woods driving the rebels before them with great slaughter.

It was in this charge that Gen. Stevens was killed and his son wounded. Gen. Kearny's batteries then opened causing great havoc. The enemy finally retreated and our troops passed on without molestation. The enemy's loss was very heavy. Gen. Stevens' command included the 28th Mass. Regt. Our loss is not stated.

GREAT BATTLE EXPECTED.

Another Tribune's Washington despatch dated yesterday says the news from Fairfax Court House last evening states that the enemy is still pursuing or threatening to pursue, the thinking movement to which Gen. Pope referred yesterday.

It was believed that Gen. Lee had massed his troops at Little River turnpike north of Centreville. Adequate preparations had been made to meet him and the probabilities were that a great battle would be fought yesterday, Tuesday or today. The 11th Mass. Regt. lost in Friday's battle 105 killed and wounded out of 240.

ARRIVED.

MONTRAL, Sept. 1.
The steamship North American passed Farther Point at 12:35 a.m., enroute for Quebec. She has 105 cabin and 122 steerage passengers.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Sept. 1.
The steamship Asia from Liverpool 23d, and Queenstown 24th, arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. Her dates are two days later than those per North American. The steamer Australasia from New York arrived at Queenstown on the 22d. The Asia reports meeting on the 25th of Aug., ships Australia, British Queen, Conqueror, N. F. Siver and Saracen, all bound to Liverpool.

On the 27th the Asia met the steamship Arabia and on the 31st the steamship Scotia bound to Liverpool. The political news per Asia has no features of importance.

POPE FALLING BACK UPON WASHINGTTON.

The latest intelligence from Gen. Pope's army dated Headquarters says that his whole column was falling back and from thence to Washington.

FROM CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, 2d, 10 P. M.
The excitement has been very high here all the afternoon. The citizens are enrolling themselves rapidly in the different wards. Large numbers are working on the Kentucky Hill. Gov. Todd arrived here this afternoon and is in communication with the military authorities.

The utmost exertions are being made for the defense of the city. The rebels it is stated are from 20,000 to 30,000 strong and reported to be Bery's Station 30 miles from this city. They are expected to arrive opposite the fortifications on Thursday.

The 45th and 59th Ohio reg'ts are falling back slowly to Covington. Our packets are all out. All the steamboats have been ordered to remain on this side of the river. Gen. Gilbert's command which fell back from Lexington reached Frankfort to-night. Some apprehensions were felt for their safety. There is no telegraphic communication south of Frankfort.

APPROPRIATION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.
Both branches of the City Council adopted a resolution appropriating half a million dollars additional for volunteer bounties, and one thousand additional to each old regiment that reorganizes for the war. The Board of Supervisors also voted two hundred and fifty thousand dollars additional for the relief of families of volunteers.

FROM THE WEST.

ST. LOUIS, 2d.
Steps having been for confiscating the property of Trist Polk, formerly U. S. Senator from this District, Capt. Fanning, chief of the U. S. Police, has been ordered to seize the same, both real and personal, and take an inventory thereof. Polk's property is estimated to be worth 100,000, he long since placed himself under the protection of the Rebel Government.

In the House Mr. Thomas offered the following resolutions:

That the committee on military affairs be instructed to inquire into the property of calling out immediately 50,000 men for 30 or 60 days for the purpose of expelling the Confederate army from Kentucky.

The Old Merchants Exchange was closed yesterday by order of the Provost Marshal. There was general evidence of disloyalty demonstrated and they will be punished should they appear. The association were thoroughly disloyal and its property will be confiscated.

FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky. 2d.
The State Legislature assembled at 12 o'clock today. In the Senate Mr. Speer from the committee of military affairs reported to the House a bill to organize the Union Army corps of the state of Ky. Referred to Committee on military affairs.

Mr. Burnam offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of those having command of our military forces, to take the most speedy measures to drive the invading rebels from the limits of the State, and that any policy looking to the abandonment of the interior of the State and of removing our forces to the line of the Ohio River, is unwise and impolitic.

Our citizens are removing their valuables fearing that the rebels will attempt to capture the city.

GUERRILLA FIGHT.

Nashville, Sept. 2.
Col. Mundy's Kentucky reg't had a severe fight near Woodbury on Thursday with Forrest's Guerrillas. Eight of the latter were killed and thirty wounded and 15 taken prisoners. Our loss was 1 killed and 5 wounded.

The Guerrillas are committing great outrages in DeKalb County and are sending union men south.

The Guerrillas made an attack on 15 men in a stockade near the Railroad and were repulsed with heavy loss. 75 bags of a buck northern mail reached here to-night.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, 3.
The steamship Baltic with 1800 soldiers on board comprising the 18th and 23rd Regts. of New York Militia, ran aground on Winter Master Shoal on Monday p. m., 800 soldiers were taken off by the sloop, Trade Wind.

THE "BURNSIDE" COAL.

It is a new Coal, which is now for the first time introduced into this market.

It is an excellent Red Ash Coal, which ignites quickly, burns freely and makes no cinders in an ordinary fire. It is intended to give entire satisfaction for domestic purposes, as it is remarkably free from impurities. Sold only by

JOSPEH BRADFORD,

Opposite the Custom House.

K A Y S T R E E T H O U S E

The subscriber having purchased this delightfully located House, and thoroughly repaired and renovated it has opened it for business. Families accommodated with pleasant suites of rooms at reasonable prices.

JOSEPH BATEMAN,

Opposite the Custom House.

D E S S E R T G O O D S.—A good variety of the prevailing styles of Dessert Goods, such as Black and White Cheesecakes, Figured and Stuffed Mincemeat—Lemons, Lardons, &c., received this day, and for sale at present, also prices, by

E. W. LAWTON, Jr.

126 Thames-st.

"Liberty and Union now and forever, one and inseparable."—Webster.

SINGLE COPIES TWO CENTS.

NEWPORT, THURSDAY AFTER NOON, SEPTEMBER 4, 1862.

NO. 104.

Business Cards.

LANGLEY & NORMAN,

DRAPERS AND PAJOLORS,

NO. 101 Thames Street, Newport.

Constantly on hand, a complete assortment of Cloth-and Furnishing Goods.

John Langley punctually attended to.

No. 122 Thames Street,

(Opposite Flinch & Engs, Newport, R. I.)

A. HOWE, S. COOPER, F. A. BROWN,

John Jobling punctually attended to.

No. 168 Thames Street,

WILLIAM B. SWAN,

DRAPER AND TAILOR,

NO. 168 Thames Street,

Offers for sale, a fresh supply of seasonable goods, such as French and German Bread-Cloths, Cissimbers and Doveskins, English and American Cashmere-rufts and Tweeds, Silk and Marmalade Vestings. A good supply of furnishing goods, also ready-made Over Coats, Frock Coats, Pants and Vests.

John Jobling attended to.

No. 101 Thames Street,

BROWN, GODDARD & BARLOW,

STOVE DEALERS, AND TIN-PLATE, SHEET-IRON AND COPPER-WORKERS,

No. 101 Thames Street,

GEORGE NASON,

UPHOLSTERING AND MATTRESS MAKING,

BY

GEORGE NASON.

Repairing and all kinds of Upholstering done with neatness; also Curtains put up in the best manner and of the latest styles.

All kinds of mattresses and Mattings for sale at the lowest prices.

MATTRESSES MADE OVER and the HAIR WELL PICKED.

All orders left at my shop will be attended to with promptness.

Room, 60 Spring Street,

Mch 28 1862

T H E "REDWOOD" HOUSE,

C. J. BLIVEN,

(Formerly of the Atlantic House.)

In consequence of the gratifying patronage received his opening a CHOICE RESTAURANT, in connection with his House next west of the

BELLEVUE HOTEL,

where his Lunche is supplied with all the

DELICACIES OF THE SEASON.

Gentlemen can be accommodated with large airy, sleeping apartments, and meals served upon the European Plan.

May 23 1862

J. S. CLARKE,

DENTIST.

Having had fourteen years practice on natural and artificial teeth, now offers professional services to all wishing them; all work warranted as recommended and reference given if required.

Will be absent from home from the first Monday to the following Saturday of each month.

Office 101 Thames st., export, over the Exchange.

Jan 18 1862

COTTRELL & BRYER,

DEALERS IN FURNITURE

Wholesale and retail agents for Clocks manufactured by the American Clock Co. Also Manufacturers and Furnishers of Collins, with the necessary appendages. All orders promptly attended to.

COTTRELL & BRYER,

No. 99 Thames Street, Newport, R. I.

Sept 18 1862

W. M. LAKE,

PUBLIC NOTARY,

With practice before the Court of Justices.

Office of the Daily News,

21-24

No. 123 Thames Street,

T. M. SEABURY,

MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN BOOTS

AND SHOES.

No. 110 Thames Street, Newport, R. I.

Jan 18 1862

CHARLES WILLIAMS,

DEALER IN THE PUREST RED AND WHITE

ASH COALS,

By the ton or cargo, and also semi-anthracite and lignite coals, and all kinds of wood for kindling or other purposes.

Wharf opposite foot of Dunlission Street.

Jan 18 1862

JOSEPH M. LEON,

PLUMBER, BRASS AND COPPER WORKER,

Manufacturer of Pumps, Kettles, Steam Pipes,

Repairing and general Jobbing promptly attended to.

No. 236 Thames Street,

Jan 18 1862

WILLIAM CORNELI,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCER,

The Daily News.

NEWPORT:

Thursday Afternoon, Sept. 3.

For EDITIONS, ENTERTAINMENT, Local News, General and War News, see this page—Latest News by Telegram, Correspond and Marine Service, Third page—Miscellaneous Reading, Full Subscription and Advertising Terms, Page 3.

Advertisers are not allowed to insert microscopical play lines or dots in the columns of this paper.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Providence, Aug. 30, 1862.

The following communication relating to three months' pay being charged from their rank, under General Orders No. 30, from the War Department, has this day been received at this office.

The draft will be made on Wednesday, the 10th of September.

Yours, &c., J. W. MURRAY, Adjutant General.

(Copy.)

W. D. TOWNSEND, Adj't Gen. of Rhode Island's Troops.

Sir: In reply to yours of 23d inst., inquiring if pay-meets soldiers now in the service of the United States, but whose term of service expired on the 20th instant, so as to be exempted under General Orders No. 30, from this department, I am directed to say that all men subject to military service, not in the service of the United States, on the day of the draft, will be subject to it.

By order of the Secretary of War.

C. P. BUCKNELL, Brigadier and A. G.

Reports throughout the State are requested to copy the above.

EXALINATION IN KENTUCKY.

The Legislature of Kentucky, during the extra session now sitting, has been largely occupied in considering the President's message to Congress, recommending the United States to co-operate with any state that may choose to abolish Slavery, by extending pecuniary aid for that purpose. The discussions, which are marked by singular moderation and deference to the authority of the President, evince almost unanimous determination to reject the proposition, but a yet neither branch of the Assembly has been able to agree to any definite action on the subject.

The resolutions which were regarded with most favor were introduced by Mr. Wolfe, and those most decidedly against emancipation. They were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, with instructions to report to the House. After referring to the proposition of the President, and the action of Congress endorsing it, the resolutions set forth, "the great advantages enjoyed in Kentucky from the Federal Union, for the preservation of which they are ready to sacrifice everything but their constitutional rights." The value of the slaves in Kentucky is estimated at one hundred millions.

The resolutions, drawn from the opinion of the President that the gradual emancipation of slaves in the border States would tend to a speedy termination of the war. The action of the dominant party in Congress is denounced in the most virulent terms, and it is accused of harboring a purpose to overturn every safeguard of the Constitution. As no evidence of this, the Constitution and other bills are advanced as a plain violation of the principles of constitutional right, and it is stated that these measures were intended to deprive the people of their state rights, with a view to elevate the negro to an equality with the white man, and they have declared that the Union shall not be restored unless slaves are abolished. The people of Kentucky will resist, peaceably, these invasions upon their rights; but if treason is committed, and the safe-guards of the Constitution shall no longer give protection, then Kentucky will rise up as one man and sacrifice her property and herself for the lives of her children, in defense of that Constitution, under which alone we can ever hope to enjoy national liberty."

The resolutions further set forth that the adoption of the President's plan of gradual emancipation, so far from contributing to the suppression of the rebellion, would only strengthen it, and exalte the disaffected States to a more determined hostility. It is not emancipation that is needed to end the rebellion, but power, and resources. So third Kentucky.

BRAGG'S DEATH: Isaac L. Stevens whose death was announced thenceforward, was a native of Massachusetts. He was educated at West Point, where he graduated with distinction, having, standing No. 1 in a class of great ability. He was present at the siege of Vera Cruz, where, as Captain of Engineers, he rendered efficient service. Resigning his commission, he was appointed by President Lincoln, Governor of Washington Territory, which post he filled for several years with faithfulness and ability.

PRESIDENT.—Dr. J. J. Ellis recently of Bristol, who married the daughter of Dr. J. O. Clowes, late of this city, has received the appointment of Assistant Surgeon of a Massachusetts regiment now organizing.

DR. PHILIP KEARNEY.—The Steamer Montreal passed up the river yesterday afternoon, having on board 750 men, for the Hospital at Prospect Grove. They are mostly convalescents. Although he did not arrive at the Grove until nearly night, the men were all landed and the steamer passed through our harbor this morning about 9 o'clock on her return.

JEROME COACHMAN.—William Jackson, the supposed coachman of that traitor, Davis, made some amazing and interesting revelations in his lecture last evening concerning the domestic life and conduct of his former master. Jackson thought Mass had a hard road to travel, and I wouldn't consent to drive him that way, anyhow!

PHILIP KEARNEY.—He was killed near Cincinnati, Sunday night, was a lieutenant of Irish descent, who left the law in 1857, to join the army as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in the fields of the Balkans, gave him (Sir Antonio) till a shower of grape—his horse to impale and shattered his armor, assuming he would have a banquet for a noble, as before now?"

Gen. Custer's Sentiments.—In his speech at Philadelphia, General Custer said: "I care not what man comes from or what his politics are. I know no man but he deserves his country as Lieutenant of Dragoons. He served two years as a volunteer in the French army in Algeria. During the Mexican war he did glorious service, and became a major general, writing from Frankfort, Kentucky, the following extract: "I have written to Charlotte, Oldham, where I reside, to let you know of my promotion to Major for his gallantry. A graphic description of his qualities was given by a correspondent when he was promoted."

And William (Davy) gave Philip Kearney, the chivalrous, the courageous, son of God, the laurels of the nation, who honored him, in

Special Notices.

Special Notices.

MAPLE, OAK AND SOUTHERN CITY COAL YARD.

PINE WOOD,

Prepared Kindling Wood,

Lehigh,

Red Ash,

Trevorton

and

Cannel

COAL,

AT SWINBURNE'S.

Jan 8 1860.

U. S. ARMY AND NAVY.

ATTENTION!

The particular attention of Officers in the Army and Navy is directed to the

UNPRECEDENTED ADVANTAGES

which the subscribers offer in the way of the best goods through workmanship, and above all, the low prices at which they furnish the latest style which are manufactured at the very shortest notice.

REGULATION UNIFORMS,

CHARLES A. SMITH & CO.,
No. 1 Old State House,
Boston.

Head of State Street, Boston.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.

In order to make room for Fall and Winter Goods, the balance of our

ELEGANT STOCK

of Summer Goods will be marked down to such easy prices as to offer extraordinary inducements to gentlemen who wish for elegant evening apparel, made in superior style, with the best of workmanship and trimming.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

DRY GOODS.

NEW.

ELEGANT

AND

CHEAP

JUST RECEIVED BY

H. H. YOUNG, Young's Brick Block

Jewell.

PRINTS.

HOOP SKIRTS.

CORSETS.

GLOVES,

HOSIERY,

WOOLENS,

COTTONS,

FANCY GOODS.

And are usually found at a Fashionable Dry Goods Store—all at very low prices.

H. H. YOUNG, Young's Brick Block,

Jewell.

A Valuable Residence For Sale.

A STONE (GRANITE) COTTAGE.

BEAUTIFUL IN Architecture; capable of accommodating a large family; supplied with gas and water fixtures, having beautiful grounds adorned with fruit trees, shrubs, and flowers. Situated on a hill overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, and the city of New Bedford.

The locality is remarkably healthy and within ten hours of New York, or two hours of either Boston, Providence or Newport.

This offers a rare opportunity for any individual wanting a residence complete, without the delay and care of building. Apply at this office.

Aug 13-14.

KIRTS—Ladies' Mosaics and Children's Skirts, from $1 to $6 Spring, of the best make.

J. H. HAMMETT, June 25.

CHARCOAL AND COKE.

WOOD—Walnut, Maple, Oak and Pine, constantly on hand and fitted to order.

PREPARED KINDLINGS BY THE BOX OR CORD.

JOSEPH BRADFORD,

Opposite the Custom House.

April 1 1860.

WANTON T. SHERMAN,

DEALER IN

MEATS OF ALL KINDS.

POULTRY, GAME, VEGETABLES AND FRUIT.

BRICK MARKET,

Foot of Washington Square,

Where can always be found a full assortment of choice

Fresh, Mutton, Lamb, Veal, Pork, Hams, Bacon, Lard,

Poultry, Eggs, Game, Vegetables of all kinds, and all other articles usually found in a first class Market.

Wagons delivered articles in any part of the city, and satisfaction guaranteed both in quality and price.

June 6-8.

SOMETHING NEW!

Flour, Corn, Oats, Feed and Fine

Meal, Shorts and Midlings,

AT SWINBURNE'S.

JEWELL'S FAMILY COAL,

Never before introduced in the New England market.

True economy to buy it,

AT SWINBURNE'S,

WHARF OPPOSITE FOOT OF MARY STREET,

inch 13 ft.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

Protected Solution of the

PROTOXIDE OF IRON,

THE SOVEREIGN REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

CHRONIC DIARRHEA,

FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

and all diseases originating in

A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD.

An invaluable Tonic and Alternative, sold by JEWETT &amp; CO., Newport, R. I.; and by

JEWETT &amp; COMPANY,

No. 235 Washington street, Boston.

Jewell.

SOMETHING NEW!

A visit to our extensive establishment, and an examination of our specimens, will convince any one that our work is superior to that of any other concern in the country.

A large corps of talented Artists enables us to produce every article of work with dispatch.

May 10.

FAMILY COALS.

A fine assortment of the choicest the markets afford always on hand, and at satisfactory prices. Also, all kinds of Wood, Prepared Kindling and Coke.

CHAS. WILLIAMS,

July 10, 1860.

S. T.—1860-X.

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

Of this celebrated bitters appears to be in every one's mouth, as well as on every one's table. They are a splendid article, and can be relied upon to strengthen and invigorate exhausted nature;

Depot, 203 Broadway, N. Y.

July 19 3m. P. H. DRAKE &amp; CO.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

FOR HORSES.

Is unrivaled, by any, and in cases of Lameness arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching. Its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scrotum, Mange, &amp;c., will also cure speedily. Sprains and Bruises may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its initial application will always cure the Lameness and enable the horse to run with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have ready at hand, for its timely use, the first appearance of Lameness will effectively prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

See advertisement.

June 4-5m.

DRY GOODS.

NEW.

ELEGANT

AND

CHEAP

JUST RECEIVED BY

H. H. YOUNG, Young's Brick Block

Jewell.

PRINTS.

HOOP SKIRTS.

CORSETS.

GLOVES,

HOSIERY,

WOOLENS,

COTTONS,

FANCY GOODS.

And are usually found at a Fashionable Dry Goods Store—all at very low prices.

H. H. YOUNG, Young's Brick Block,

Jewell.

A Large steamer supposed to be the "Nashville"

loaded with arms, is lying at Savannah having run the blockade via Warsaw Sound.

SAILED.

HALIFAX, N. S.

The steamship Asia sailed for Boston at 5:00 p.m.

H.

NEWS ITEMS.

NEW YORK.

The schooner Nile from Baltimore was run into on Tuesday off Baileys Head, by an unknown schooner and sank in 15 minutes. The crew were saved and arrived here.

The gunboat Seneca from Port Royal, Aug. 30 has arrived.

The steamer Hazel from Newbern has also arrived. She brings Gilmore's Band of the 25th,

Mass., also the bands of the 17th, and 24th Mass.

Regts., also the Bands of the 23d and 27th Mass.

and 10th Comp. Regts., in all 133 musicians.

The gunboat Seneca reports all quiet at Port Royal. The health of the troops is satisfactory.

Gen. Hunter had established a rigid quarantine on the vessels from the Gulf ports.

The steamer Karank late Cunard has arrived safely at Hilton's Head.

The Times' letter from Hilton Head reports the loss of the steam frigate Alcmene on the 23d of August off Africa. The crew are all safe on a small island in the vicinity of the wreck.

The gunboat Canandaigua has gone to their relief.

OUR ARMY CONCENTRATED AT WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, N. Y.

The Herald's Washington despatch has the following:

To-night the Union Army will all be concentrated in the works around this city and

Gen. McClellan has already assumed the position of Commander in Chief of all the forces in the field in this part of the country. The announcement of this latter fact has been hailed with acclamations of infinite delight by nearly the whole population.

Manufactured only by

TARRANT &amp; CO.,

No. 278 Greenwich St. cor. Warren Street,

NEW YORK.

For sale by Druggists generally.

Jy 31 1860.

PLINY FISKE'S FAMILY COAL,

Never before introduced in the New England market.

True economy to buy it,

AT SWINBURNE'S,

WHARF OPPOSITE FOOT OF MARY STREET,

inch 13 ft.

SOMETHING NEW!

A visit to our extensive establishment, and an examination of our specimens, will convince any one that

